CAPT. BALDWIN TO DEFENSE OF
DR. COOK

Capt. Evelyn Briggs Baldwin, organizer and leader of the Baldwin-Ziegler exploring expedition of 1901-02, has come to the defense of Dr. Frederick Cook, according to a signed statement made by Capt. Baldwin and given out by Dr. Cook's friends, who believe staunchly in the noted explorer's claims of reaching the North Pole before Peary.

Dr. Cook is to appear at and lecture in the opera house here on February 25 and March 1, the dates having been set forward a few days because of the coming of the Lombardi Grand Opera Company early in March.

Capt. Baldwin, well-known in Honolulu, in his statement defending Cook says:

"I can prove the truth of Dr. Cook's statements in regard to his discovery of the North Pole, from Peary's own official record of his last dart to the northward.

"So far as I can learn, Dr. Cook has never made a 'confession' in regard to his trip to the Pole in the sense that he denied his first statements. He has said that in view of the great difficulty in determining the exact location of the Pole, he may not have been exactly upon the northernmost point of the world. Peary, under pressure, at the congressional investigation, was forced to admit the same.

"For three hundred years there has been a rivalry among civilized men to be the first to reach the North Pole. I believe that the honor of having succeeded in the attempt should go—not to Peary—but to the man who reached the Pole a year before Peary claims to have been there. With the information that I myself have gathered, I believe that he did really reach the Pole, or came so close to that point that he is entitled to the credit of the Pole's discovery.

"A few sensation mongers will, perhaps, deery Dr. Cook for some years to come, but Arctic explorers endorse him today. Rear-admiral W. S.
Schley, General A. W. Greely, Captain Roald Amundsen, discoverer of the South Pole; Otto Sverdrup and all the world's greatest explorers, have endorsed Dr. Cook.

"I have seen Dr. Cook's original field notes—his observations and the important chapters of his book, where-ever his claim is presented in such a way that the scientific world must accept it as the record and the proof of the greatest geographic accomplishment of modern times.

"Putting aside the academic and idle argument of pin-point accuracy, the North Pole has been honestly reached by Dr. Cook 350 days before anyone else claimed to have been there."

Bear operators carried the market in New York yesterday, and there was a general fall in prices. Short cover-
